✓ Students should speak with their guidance counselor BEFORE registering for a virtual school course.

- Students are permitted to take no more than two virtual school courses during a semester.
- Coursework can be retaken for remediation if a grade of D or F was earned.
- Prerequisites may exist for a course. Make certain you have met these requirements. Make certain you are registering for the correct semester.
- Grades earned through virtual school will be reflected on your Crooms AoIT transcript. If you change your mind about taking a course - drop it - or an F may end up on your transcript. Remember: what goes on the transcript stays on the transcript!
- Students are responsible for notifying guidance when credit has been awarded.
- Students are responsible for notifying guidance when credit does not appear on the academic transcript.
- You are responsible for your own computer, software, and Internet Service Provider when taking virtual courses.
- Your virtual school teacher will help you set a pace to complete the course in approximately 18 weeks for a semester or 36 weeks for a year-long course. Students may work more rapidly by submitting extra assignments. Your school district may have additional deadlines to consider when taking an online course. Make certain you are submitting assignments regularly or you may be dropped from the class.

➤ FLVS – register for courses on FLVS if it will be done after school hours or during summer.
